JEWS MARCH FOR PRIDE

WE ARE ALL CREATED IN G-D'S IMAGE

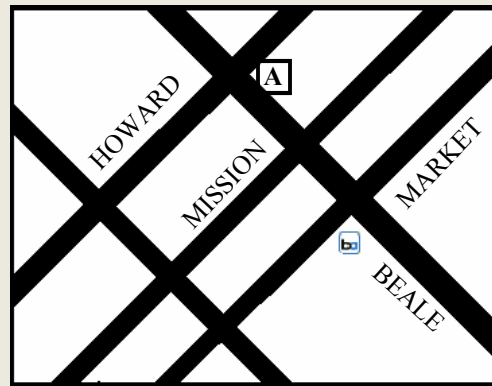

Calling the Jewish Community!

March together at the San Francisco Pride Parade

The Annual Pride Celebration and Parade is the largest gathering of its kind in the nation. The theme of this year's family-friendly day is "In Order to Form a More Perfect Union," drawn from the Preamble of the Constitution and inspired by the 2008 California Supreme Court decision on marriage.

Please take public transportation! Bart trains are leaving the North Peninsula during the following times:

Millbrae Station	Colma Station	Daly City Station
8:18am	8:34am	8:09am
8:33am	8:49am	8:21am
8:48am	9:17am	8:38am

9:00 am Bagel Breakfast (free - see map marked "A")

Beale Street Bar & Grill

133 Beale Street at Mission
San Francisco

10:30- Noon Parade

Market from Beale to 8th Street

Followed by Pride Celebration at the Civic Center
